

Summary of Turkish Airlines information for unaccompanied minors

Dear Passenger,

If you're traveling as an unaccompanied minor, without your parent or legal guardian, Turkish Airlines is here to assist you. For your safety and comfort, we require some personal information.

What is personal information?

- Your name, surname, and age
- Your passport number
- Information on the people dropping you off at the departure airport and picking you at the arrival airport
- Languages you speak

Why do we need this information?

Turkish Airlines uses this information in the following ways:

- To ensure your safety during the flight
- To ensure that you're picked up by the designated person
- To comply with the rules of the countries where you're traveling from and to

How do we safeguard this information?

- We share information only with the officials and authorities who need it (for example, airport personnel or the person picking you up).
- We utilize secure systems to protect your information from unauthorized access.
- We stop storing your information when we no longer need it.

You or your parents/legal guardians can contact us with any questions.

For example:

- You can ask what information we have.
- You can contact us to correct any inaccuracies in the information
- You can let us know that you no longer want us to use your information (unless it is required for security or legal reasons).

---

Need more help?

If you or your parents/legal guardians need more information, you can read the full disclosure statement here or contact Turkish Airlines directly using the contact details provided in this notice.