If the name or code of an airline is shown on the ticket, that airline is the contracting airline. Any actions in law for damages must be brought within two years from the date of the aircraft's arrival or the date on which the aircraft should have arrived. The liability for damage due to delayed performance in the carriage of, or the destruction and loss of or damage to, checked baggage is limited to a sum equal to 17 SDR multiplied by the weight of the checked baggage. In calculating this limitation, only the weight of the actual piece of checked baggage that has been delayed, lost, destroyed or damaged, is taken into consideration, unless the passenger establishes that such delay, loss, destruction or damage affects related items placed in other baggage(s) carried under the same baggage bulletin/receipt, in which case the total weight of this (these) other baggage(s) are also taken in consideration. a higher liability limit applies if the passenger submits a separate declaration (in writing) when checking in and pays a surcharge. Where the baggage has not been checked in, the carrier is only liable for culpable conduct, and the liability of the carrier, if proven, is limited to a sum of 350 SDR. If baggage is damaged, delayed, lost or destroyed, the passenger is required to inform the carrier as soon as possible and in writing. If baggage that has been checked in has been damaged, including where parts of the contents of the baggage are claimed to have been removed without the passenger's agreement or knowledge, the passenger is required to report such damage in writing within seven days, or within 21 days of the baggage being made available in the event of baggage being delayed. Any actions in law for damages must be brought within two years from the date of the aircraft's arrival or the date on which the aircraft should have arrived. If the person collecting the baggage accepts any item of checked-in baggage without reservation, this action shall establish the disputable presumption that it has been delivered undamaged in accordance with the document of carriage. The carrier's liability is in all cases limited to proven damage and, in the case of baggage, to the depreciated value of the delayed, lost or damaged items. The damage to be compensated is reduced in the event of contributory fault.

- (B) General

  - (1) The carrier whose designator code is identified on the first segment of the passenger's interline ticket will be known as the selecting carrier.
  - (2) Any carrier who is identified as providing interline transportation to the passenger by virtue of the passenger's ticket will be known as a participating carrier.
- (C) Baggage rule determination by selecting carrier

- (D) Baggage rule application by participating carrier
where TK is not the selected carrier on an interline itinerary but is a participating carrier that is providing transportation to the passenger based on the ticket issued, TK will apply as its own the baggage rules of the selected carrier throughout the interline itinerary.
- (E) Disclosure of baggage rules summary page at the end of an online purchase and e-ticket disclosure
  - (1) For baggage rules provisions related to a passenger's 1st and 2nd checked bag and the passenger's carry-on baggage (i.e. the passenger's "standard" baggage allowance), when the carrier sells and issues a ticket for an interline itinerary, it will disclose to the passenger on

(F) Definitions

"Airline designator code"

An identification code comprised of two-characters which is used for commercial and traffic purposes such as reservations, schedules, timetables, ticketing, tariffs and airport display systems. airline designators are assigned by IATA. When this code appears on a ticket, it reflects the carrier that is marketing the flight, which might be different from the carrier operating the flight.

"Baggage rules"

The conditions associated with the acceptance of baggage, services incidental to the transportation of baggage, allowances and all related charges. for example, baggage rules may address the following topics:

- . The maximum weight and dimensions of passenger bags, if applicable, both checked and unchecked;
- . The number of checked and unchecked passenger bags that can be transported and the applicable charges;
- . Excess and oversized baggage charges;
- . Charges related to check-in, collection and delivery of checked baggage;
- . Acceptance and charges related to special items, e.g. surfboards, pets, bicycles, etc;
- . Baggage provisions related to prohibited or unacceptable items, including embargoes;
- . Terms or conditions that would alter or impact the baggage allowances and charges applicable to passengers (e.g. frequent flyer status, early check-in, pre-purchasing baggage allowances with a particular credit card); and,
- . Other rules governing treatment of baggage at stopover points, including passengers subject to special baggage allowances or charges, etc.

"Interline agreement":

An agreement between two or more carriers to co-ordinate the transportation of passengers and their baggage from the flight of one air carrier to the flight of another air carrier (through to the next point of stopover).

"Interline itinerary":

All flights reflected on a single ticket involving multiple air carriers. Only travel on a single ticket is subject to the agency's approach provided the origin or the ultimate ticketed destination is a point in Canada.

"Interline travel":

Travel involving multiple air carriers listed on a single ticket that is purchased via a single transaction.

"Single ticket":

A document that permits travel from origin to destination. It may include interline/code-share

Tariff: TK1
Carrier: Turkish Airlines - TK

CTA No. 530 DOT No. 846

and intra-line segments. It may also include end-to-end combinations (i.e., standalone fares that can be bought separately but combined together to form one price).

"Summary page at the end of an online purchase":

A page on a carrier's web site which summarizes the details of a ticket purchase transaction just after the passenger has agreed to purchase the ticket from the carrier and has provided a form of payment.

"Ultimate ticketed destination":

In situations where a passenger's origin is a non-Canadian point and the itinerary includes at least one stop in Canada, as well as at least one stop outside Canada. If the stop in Canada is the farthest checked point and the stop is more than 24 hours, the agency would consider the ultimate ticketed destination to be Canada.

Carrier definitions (various)

"Down line carrier":

Any carrier, other than the selecting carrier, who is identified as providing interline transportation to the passenger by virtue of the passenger's ticket.

"Marketing carrier":

The carrier that sells flights under its code.

"Most significant carrier (MSC)":

is determined by a methodology, established by IATA (resolution 302), which establishes, for each portion of a passenger's itinerary where baggage is checked through to a new stopover point, which carrier will be performing the most significant part of the service. For travelers under the resolution 302 system, the baggage rules of the MSC will apply. For complex itineraries involving multiple checked baggage points, there may be more than one MSC, resulting in the application of differing baggage rules through an itinerary.

"Most significant carrier (MSC)-IATA resolution 302 as conditioned by the agency":

In this instance, the MSC is determined by applying IATA resolution 302 methodology as conditioned by the agency. The agency's reservation has stipulated that only a single set of baggage rules may apply to any given interline itinerary. The aim of the agency's reservation is to allow the selecting carrier to use the MSC methodology to determine which carrier's baggage rules apply to an international interline itinerary to or from Canada, while reinforcing the role of tariffs in the determination of which carrier's rules apply.

"Operating carrier":

the carrier that operates the actual flight.

"Participating carrier(s)":
