

Transportation from Antalya Airport to the city center

PUBLIC TRANSPORT:

You can reach the city center from Antalya Airport (AYT) via HAVAŞ buses. You can also take public buses numbered 400, 600 or 800 to the city center and to other points in the city. In addition, the tram runs from the airport to the city center. To reach the city center via tram, get off at the Muratpaşa station. To reach the old city of Kaleiçi, with the Clock Tower and Hadrian's Gate, get off at the İsmetpaşa station.

Private transfers are available to touristic districts far from the center such as Kas, Alanya, Side and Kemer. If you prefer to use public transportation, you can reach the bus station via the airport shuttles and take a minibus to your destination.

The airport is approximately 15 kilometers from the city center.

TAXI:

You can reach the city center from Antalya Airport in about 20 minutes by taxi. You can access taxi transfer sites online to arrange a pick-up; your taxi will be waiting for you when you leave the airport.
